

31 October 2018

ASBJ reappointed as a member of the Accounting Standards Advisory Forum

The Accounting Standards Board of Japan (ASBJ) was elected as a member of the Accounting Standards Advisory Forum (ASAF) for the third term of three years.

The ASAF was created by the IFRS Foundation in March 2013, with its mission to provide technical advice to the International Accounting Standards Board. The ASAF consists of twelve members from major national accounting standards setters and regional groups around the world. Members of the ASAF for the third term are as follows:

Region	Members
Africa	Pan African Federation of Accountants
Asia-Oceania (including one at large)	Asian-Oceanian Standard-Setters Group Accounting Standards Board of Japan Accounting Regulatory Department, PRC Ministry of Finance Korea Accounting Standards Board
Europe (including one at large)	European Financial Reporting Advisory Group Autorité des normes comptables Financial Reporting Council, UK Organismo Italiano di Contabilità
The Americas	Group of Latin American Accounting Standard Setters Canadian Accounting Standards Board Financial Accounting Standards Board

Since inauguration of the ASAF in 2013, the ASBJ has actively participated in the discussions at the ASAF meetings, so as to communicate its views to the IASB and other relevant bodies. The ASBJ will continue its active participation in the discussions. The next ASAF meeting will be held in London, on 6 and 7 December of 2018.

The press release published by the IFRS Foundation can be found at:

<https://www.ifrs.org/news-and-events/2018/10/ifrs-foundation-trustees-announce-new-composition-of-asaf/>